Form 990, Part III, Line 1 - Organization Mission

ATC reaches out to homeless youth and young adults and works with them to build healthy and fulfilling lives. We remove common barriers to service by bringing our counselors onto the streets and shaping our support services around the needs of each individual client.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - Program Service Accomplishments

Our three primary programs are our nighttime Street Outreach, our One-to-One counseling, and our On-The-Spot counseling. Street Outreach happens four nights a week. Counselors walk the streets of the Tenderloin and offer youth much-needed supplies like food, hygiene items, and socks. When they see us night after night youth slowly begin to trust us, open up, and turn to us for support. One-to-One Counseling is when counselors meet with these youth one-to-one during the daytime with the goal of developing healthy, long-term, unconditionally supportive relationships. Through these relationships we help clients identify and achieve their personal goals. developing the tools and plans to make them happen. On-The-Spot Counseling is a program that targets the youth that we are having the hardest time building meaningful connections with. During the day, counselors walk the streets and proactively offer our most disconnected clients on-the-spot meetings and a bit to eat. By cutting out all the bureaucracy and wait time we can effectively serve our most disconnected clients working within the reality of their lifestyles to best meet their needs. Through our three primary programs we worked with more than 1,100 young people. We focus on young people who do not access traditional services and are disconnected from any type of consistent support. We work with young people who others have given up on, who would not get help without us. We remove common barriers to service by bringing our counselors onto the streets and shaping our support services around the needs of individual clients. Our goal is to help clients build
